Workshop on Domestic Violence and Counseling

A workshop was organized aiming to understand the nature of violence against women and the role of counseling in the means of intervention of social work. The workshop was organized in association with Manaswiniwomens project, Ambajogai dated 25th July 2021 on virtual platform. Dr D .S .Kore , family court counselor , Aurangabad was invited as resource person . The workshop was held on Google meet virtual platform.

Violence Against Women is a content given significant weightage in the MSW syllabus in all the semesters .Family Counseling and violence related counseling are one of the prominent areas where students get placement. This workshop was jointly organized with the NGO working on women related issues. The Ambajogai based NGO had two counseling centers in two blocks and currently working in fifty villages. The outreach workers also joined in the workshop.

The workshop aimed to increase understanding of students and the outreach workers in the area of counseling and domestic violence. It would help to acquire the legal insight of the legislation PWDA 2005.

Domestic violence is regarded as a means to control women from living independent and subjugate to live equal as men in stigmas regarding male victimization, men who are victims of domestic violence face an increased likelihood of being overlooked by healthcare providers.¹

Domestic violence is currently defined in India by the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act of 2005. According to Section 3 of the Act, "any act, omission or commission or conduct of the respondent shall constitute domestic violence in case it:

1. harms or injures or endangers the health, safety, life, limb or well-being, whether mental or physical, of the aggrieved person or tends to do so and includes causing physical abuse, sexual abuse, verbal and emotional abuse and economic abuse; or
2. harasses, harms, injures or endangers the aggrieved person with a view to coerce her or any other person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any dowry or other property or valuable security; or
3. has the effect of threatening the aggrieved person or any person related to her by any conduct mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b); or
4. otherwise injures or causes harm, whether physical or mental, to the aggrieved person."

Drkore in a very simple language elaborated the act to the participants.

He has got more than thirty years of experience in Family Court as a Counselor. He explained the concept 'violence' by adding suitable examples of all types of violence. As a social worker how we can deal with the situation when some lady is being pertaining to violence at home and what should be our role to support survival of domestic violence. The basic of counseling and do's and do notes was explained sharing the cases in the high court and how was the impact over the survivor and the society.

In the concluding session interactions were discoursed. Students also submitted their doubts and queries. Workshop ended with extending vote of thanks. More than hundred participated in the workshop organized on Google Meet virtual platform.
