1. Chh. Shahu Maharaj Birth Anniversary

Chh. Shahu Maharaj Birth anniversary was celebrated in Manavlok's College of Social Work on 26th June 2020. Dr. Nazir Sheikh garlanded the image of great social reformer Chh. Shahu Maharaj. On this occasion Dr. Nazir Sheikh expressed his thoughts on the reformative work of Chh. Shahu Maharaj. He said that, Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj, a great king of his own kind is considered to be more of a social reformer than a king. Shahu Maharaj was crowned as a King of Kolhapur State, on 2nd April, 1894 in the presence of Governor Lord Harris. Unlike any other King, Shahu Maharaj did not just lead a Royal Life, but he had a vision to see what was happening around him in the society, beyond the palace life. He had understood the problems of the grass root citizens of his State and his Nation, before and after the British rule. Hence before understanding the contribution of Chh. Shahu Maharaj to the causes of women in our society, it becomes necessary to know briefly, the social history of the contemporary society.

Throughout his life and extensive writing career, Radhakrishnan sought to define, defend, and promulgate his religion, a religion he variously identified as Hinduism, Vedanta, and the religion of the Spirit. He sought to demonstrate that his Hinduism was both philosophically coherent and ethically viable. Radhakrishnan's concern for experience and his extensive knowledge of the Western philosophical and literary traditions has earned him the reputation of being a bridge-builder between India and the West.

He was a social reformer who was dedicated to eliminating child marriage and illiteracy and to spread education among women and the people belonging to lower castes. He introduced to love and empathy put forward by Hinduism. Swami Vivekananda had received a standing ovation by the crowd for his speech. 10) Chh. Shivaji Maharaj Birth Anniversary

Dr. Prakash Jadhav, Principal, Manavlok's College of Social Work, garlanded the image of Chh. Shivaji Maharaj. Born to Jijabai and Shahji Bhonsle on February 19, 1630 in Pune's Shivneri Durg, Shivaji Raje Bhosle or Shivaji, is regarded as the greatest warrior king of the Maratha empire. Every year, "Shiv Jayanti" is celebrated with great favor in Maharashtra and other parts of the country to mark the Maratha king's birth anniversary on February 19. On his 392nd birth anniversary today, here are some interesting facts about Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Shivaji worked for the needy and poor and established a great civil rule in his region. He encouraged the poor to join his army, offering them an opportunity to climb up the social ladder. Shivaji respected all religions alike. He never attacked any religious place. He accommodated all the religions without compromising on his own Hindu religious beliefs. Many of his trusted warriors were Muslims. Shivaji was against forceful religious conversions. He planned his daughter Sakhubai's wedding with Mahadji, the son of Bajaanirao Naik Nimbalkar, who was converted to Islam by Aurangzeb. During the ceremony, he encouraged Bajaanirao to return to Hinduism. Shivaji was probably the first king in the region to understand the role of naval fleet to protect his motherland from foreign invasion. He even built naval forts at Jaigarh, Vijaydurg, Sindhudurg and many other places at the coastline to protect the Konkan region.
